Hello - Hallo - Hola!

My name is Fernando, a nerdy tech human being (he-him), who cares about Diversity and Humanity. I consider myself an energy multiplier and someone who strongly believes in human values, which are pillars of any healthy working culture.

After seeing your open position, I fully believe that I could be a good fit for what you are looking for:

- I can lead, grow, organize and optimize Teams.
- I breathe Knowledge Sharing and Mentoring.
- Respect, honesty and communication are my most fundamental Principles.
- I can speak Kotlin, Java and Rust (some) proficiently.
- I can also speak Python and a bit of Typescript.
- I have a Mobile, Backend and Frontend Background.
- Extra ball: I'm a proud Product/Business thinker and I LOVE YOUR PRODUCT!!!

As a plus, I have 20+ years of experience which includes companies like SoundCloud, Wire, IBM and Tuenti, where complexity on Engineering is brought to the next level. I can wear different hats: since in the last few years I have been mostly in Leadership positions but I have never put aside my coding skill-set and open source contributions).

Why you?

- The company works on innovation through latest tech and interesting product ideas.
- I want to be challenged in very complex scenarios.
- I want to create a big impact and be a game changer by fostering diversity and human values.
- I want to multiply my energy, learn and share my knowledge across the globe under the company's name.
